DIY Club: How to Hack a Talking Toy 2:15-4:15PM (Donation $5-$10)

With Lowell Dad Burk Murray. Make your trashcan talk, your refrigerator sing or your jack-o-lantern cackle with glee - it's easy! You can make an inexpensive talking toy do your bidding, using mostly household materials.

No experience necessary. Bring a battery-powered talking toy and a screwdriver.

This project is often used to have fun with broken toys. For this first time at this project, it's best if your talking toy is not yet broken. Please bring your batteries for testing your toy.

Sunday November 17th

NOVA Counseling and Activities 1-2 PM

DIY Club: Installing a Minecraft Server 2:15-4:15 (Donation $5-$10)

Do your kids love Minecraft? Bring your laptop and play!

Want to install a Minecraft Server for your child and his friends to play? Lowell Dad Burk Murray will present information for adults and youth. Youth under the age of 14 should be accompanied by an adult. Youth with a Minecraft account who arrive with a personal laptop with pre-installed Minecraft may play on their personal laptops and public servers while the parent or guardian attends the session. Your donation will help to pay for Minecraft licenses.

Sunday December 15th
